Notes

1. This list will be updated periodically as I make more relevant content (hopefully).
2. I do NOT have a paid course, Telegram channel, Discord channel, lucrative trade opportunity, or anything of the sort. It is incredibly unlikely that I will reach out to you on any social media platform. Always double check the username. Impersonators are rampant.
3. The most direct way to support my work is by 1) sharing it with someone who could benefit from it; and 2) checking out the links in the 'My Affiliations' section.
4. If you have any ideas for content that you feel is sorely missing, send me a DM on Twitter.
